FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FRINGE ARTIST INVITES PUBLIC INTO BATHROOM

Mirror, Mirror: Men's Room Self-Portraits is a photographic exhibition by mixed media artist Burnell Yow! (exclamation point is part of the name). The framed works will be exhibited on the bathroom walls at Bahdeebahdu Gallery, 309 Cherry Street and at Old City Coffee, 221 Church Street, both in Old City, during the 2005 Philly Fringe Festival running from September 2 - 17.

The images, shot over the last two years in NY, PA & NJ bathroom mirrors, literally “reflect” how one artist sees himself. That the mirror presents an illusion most of us willingly accept has intrigued Yow! since childhood, when he first theorized that mirrors were a gateway to an alternate and reversed universe.

All photographs are labeled with the location and date, e.g., “Home Depot – Moorestown, NJ – 6/17/04.”

Images are available on request, or can be downloaded at the URL listed below.
