ELDER ARTIST INSPIRES YOUNG AND OLD ALIKE AT THE MILLS

Philadelphia intuitive artist Burnell Yow! will be conducting a workshop/demonstration on Saturday, May 7th and Saturday, June 4th 2005 at the Crafts for Living Gallery at the Mills of Falls from 11 am to 3 pm on both days. The Crafts for Living gallery is located at...

Yow!'s Dolls of the Apocalypse will be featured on May 7th. Yow!, who uses found objects in his art, has created a new horrific series of works utilizing doll parts and other objects put together in true Frankensteinian fashion. One can't help but feel a bit like a time-traveling archeologist being given a glimpse of a possible future in which a child's toy reflects a post-apocalyptic world gone terribly wrong. That the works are displayed on museum-style pedestals and appear to be quite old lends an air of authenticity to this notion.

Another series, Fifty-Two Collages In 52 Weeks, will be featured on June 4th.
